

Organisational Structure

Kingfisher Surveying and Design Ltd is a small practice that provides building surveying and architectural services to clients through the medium of appropriately qualified professionals. Who are either directly employed or are sub-contractors or sub-consultants, all of whom are closely vetted. As a result, we believe that our potential risk for slavery/ human trafficking is low.

Commitment

The practice acknowledges its responsibilities in relation to tackling modern slavery and commits to complying with the provisions as laid out in the modern slavery act 2015. As an equal opportunity employer Kingfisher Surveying and Design Ltd is committed to creating and maintaining a non-discriminatory and courteous workplace.

To ensure that the principles are embedded within the practice, Kingfisher Surveying and Design Ltd will:

- Regularly review its supply chain and supplier contacts and exercise termination proceedings should a supplier be suspected to be involved in modern slavery.
- Ensure employment policies are reviewed on a regular basis
- Provide training

All concerns regarding modern slavery should be addressed to the director who will then investigate and take appropriate action.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will be reviewed on an annual basis.
